HOLIDAYS

Eid al-Fitr

This year, Eid, the festivity at the end of the fasting month of Ramadan was expected to be on or around August 30th (the exact date cannot be determined in advance due to the nature of the Islamic lunar calendar. Estimates are based on expected visibility of the hilal - waxing crescent moon following a new moon - and vary according to location)

To all our Muslim members, may Eid bring lots of joy and happiness to you, family and friends.

And have a great holiday!

Diwali

Diwali is one of the biggest festivals of Hindus, celebrated with great enthusiasm and happiness. The festival is celebrated for five continuous days, where the third day is celebrated as the main Diwali festival or 'Festival of lights'.

This year, Diwali will be on Wednesday October 26th. We want to wish our member in India a warm light in your lives and a very happy Diwali!
